1. [REDACTED] A group of ten students and one faculty member, Mr. Robert G. Anderson, from Presbyterian College, Clinton, South Carolina, visited the Agency for a lecture by [REDACTED] OTR, and lunch in the north cafeteria. The reaction on the part of both the students and Mr. Anderson to [REDACTED] speech on the role of the Agency was extremely favorable. They said it was the finest presentation they had received during their entire stay in Washington. Don Matheson, on Senator Strom Thurmond's (R., S.C.) staff, coordinated the plans for the students' visit.
